

Exploring Edgar Allan Poe on the Internet: Finding Figurative Language

Website: "Poetry by Edgar Allan Poe": <http://poestories.com/poetry.php>

Directions: For this activity, you will be able to explore poems by Edgar Allan Poe and look for the different types of figurative language while reading. First, go to the website <http://poestories.com/poetry.php>. On this page, there will be a list of poems by Edgar Allan Poe. Click on the poem to read the poem and click back on your browser to go back to the list after you have read the poem. Browse through the list of poems and read some of the poems looking for different types of figurative language. Find an example of a metaphor, personification, onomatopoeia, alliteration, and allusion. As you find an example of each, fill out the chart below by including the title of the poem and the line(s) that contains the example. Do not use the same poem twice.
